

WEBSITE CHECKLIST

You know who created the website.

- The author may be a person, organization, company, school, etc.
- Information about the author is provided (e.g. "about us", contact information, education).

You know where the information came from.

- Sources are provided (e.g. bibliography, links).

The information is current.

- Date/year last updated is provided.

The information is objective.

- Information is based on facts, not only opinions.
- Information is not biased or prejudiced; it includes different perspectives.
- Website's purpose is clear (e.g. to educate, to sell, to entertain).
- Website has limited or no advertising/sponsors.